THE 1955 MITRE

Schulte High School - Terre Haute, Indiana

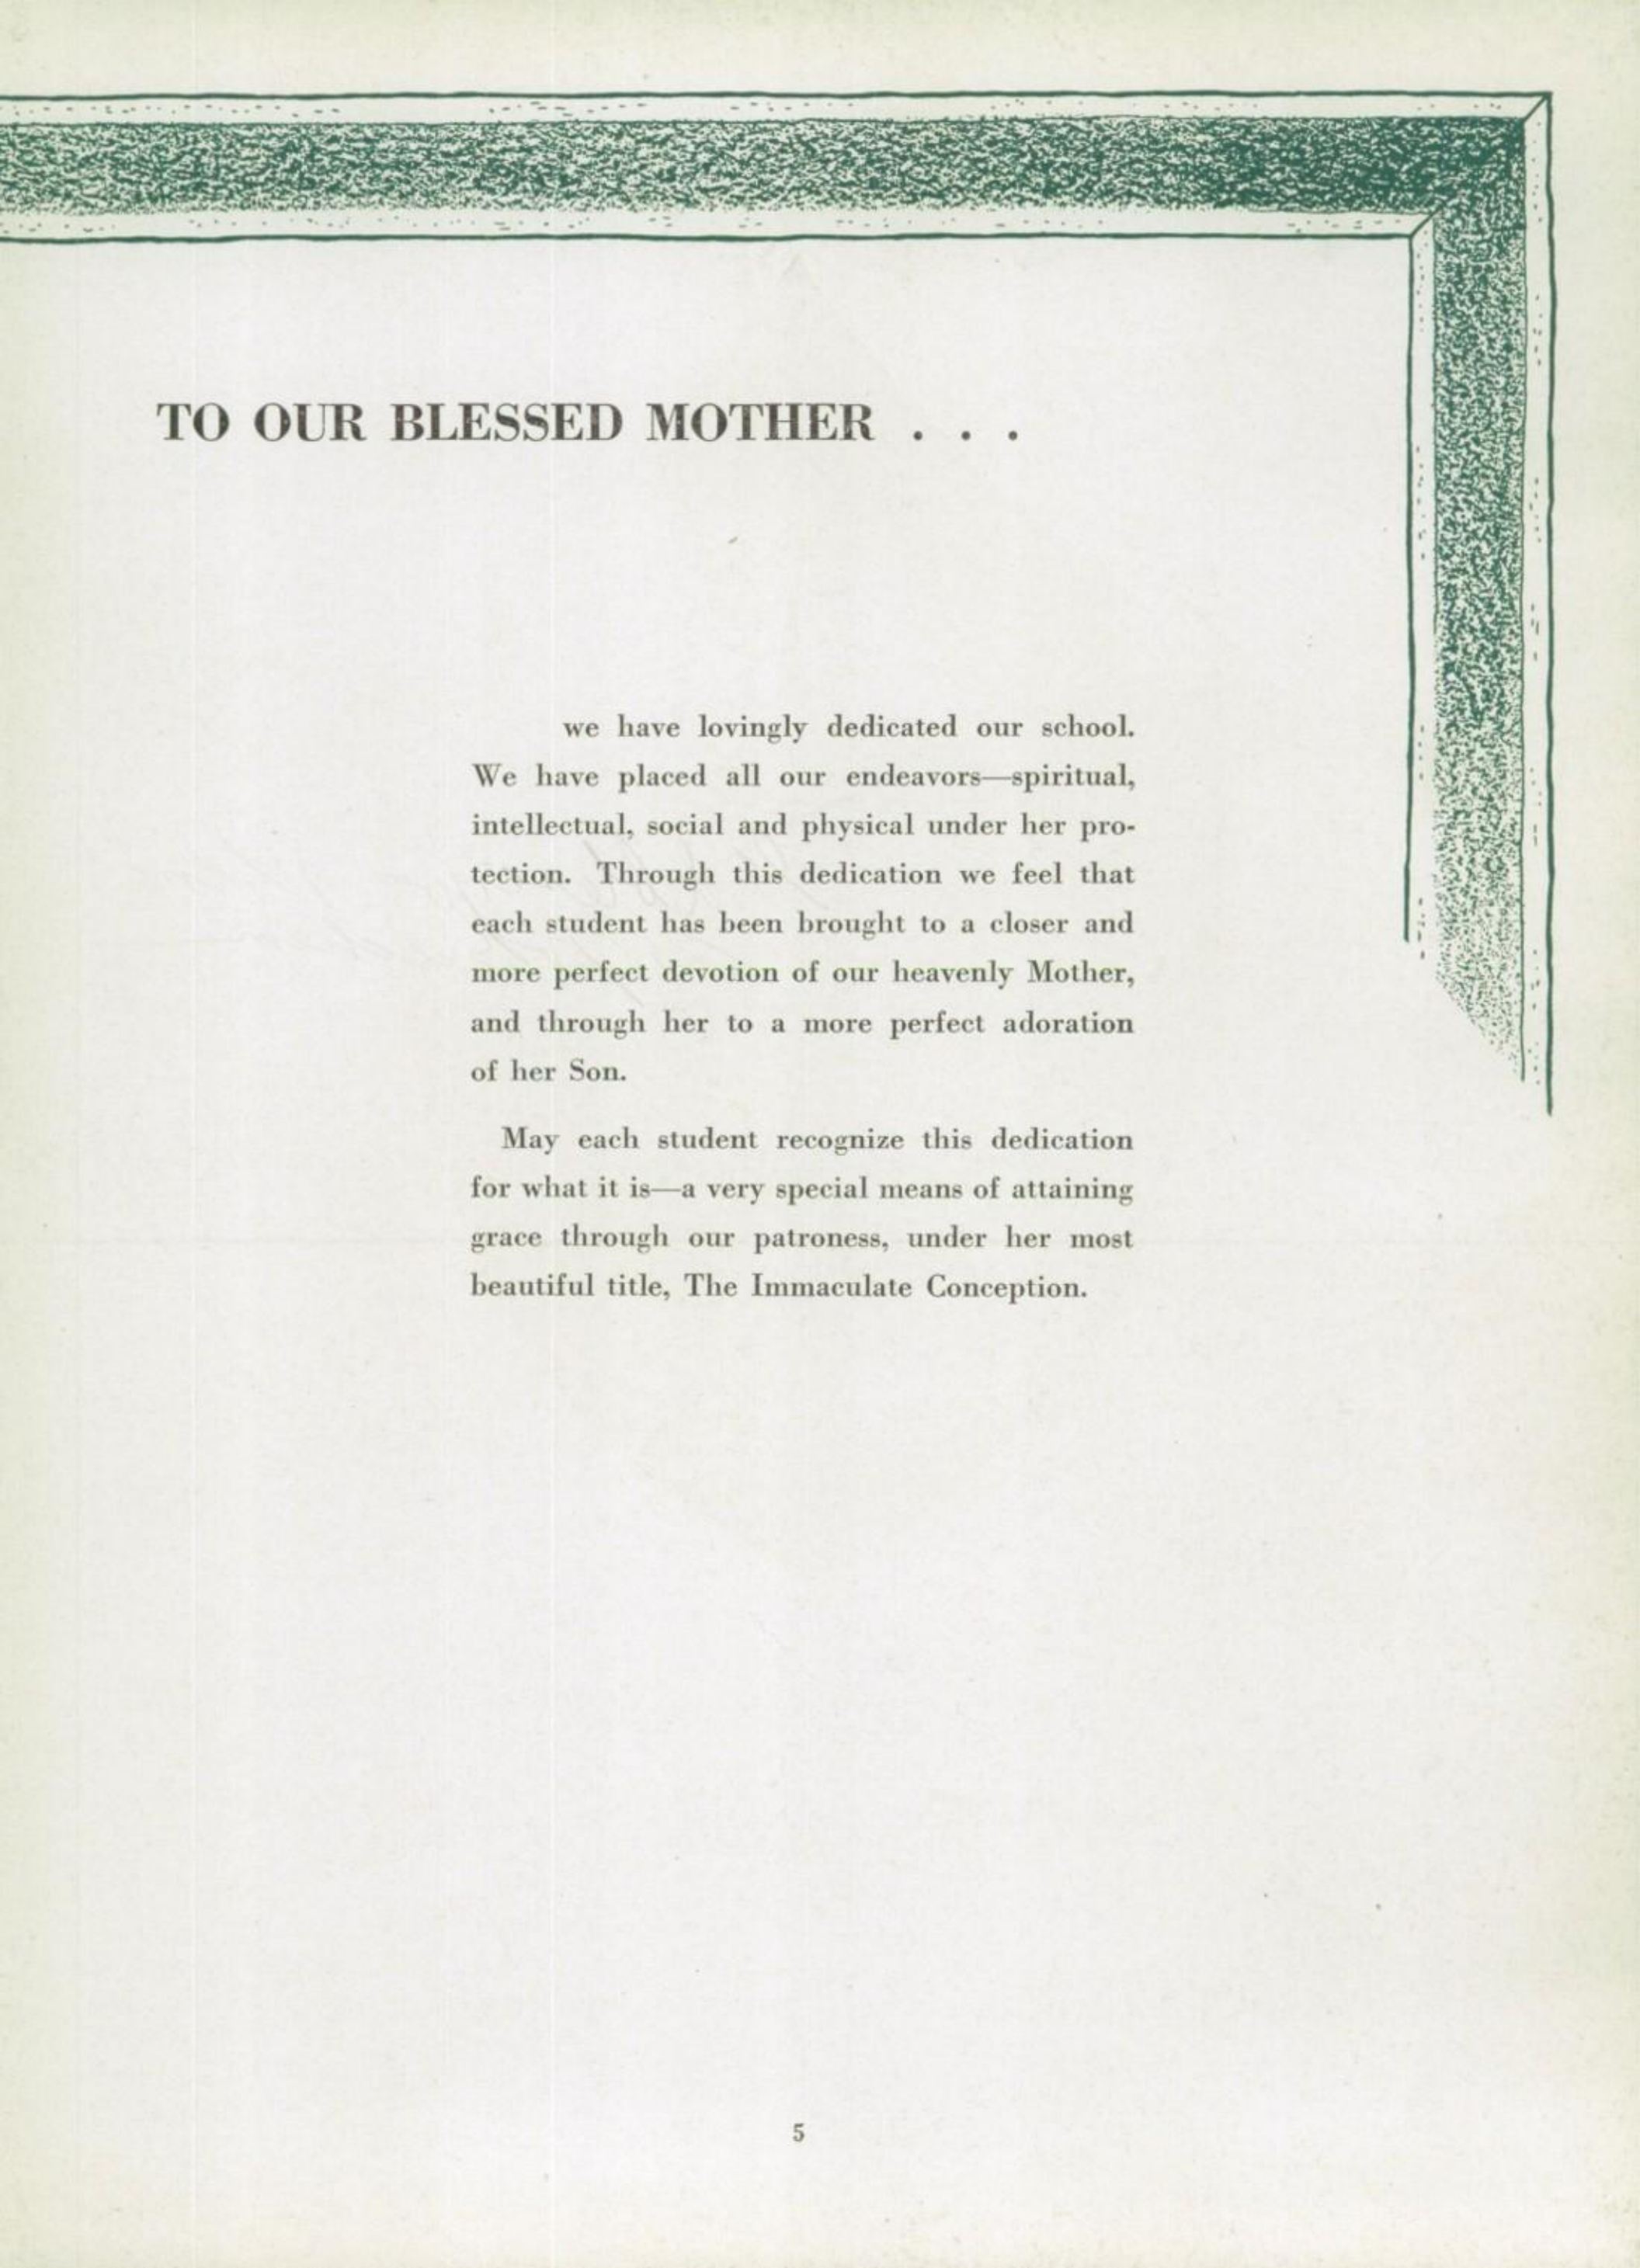

THE 1955 MITRE

With pride we point to Schulte High School and to the Spirit of Schulte which has become an intrinsic part of the school itself. This is only the second year of its existence, but we respect the traditions, the activities, and the thoroughly democratic spirit that is prevalent in our fine school. It is an honor to have been a part of this wonderful institution, if only for such a short time, and we hope that through our success in the future we will make Schulte High School as proud of us as we are of it.

TO OUR BLESSED MOTHER . . .

we have lovingly dedicated our school. We have placed all our endeavors—spiritual, intellectual, social and physical under her protection. Through this dedication we feel that each student has been brought to a closer and more perfect devotion of our heavenly Mother, and through her to a more perfect adoration of her Son.

May each student recognize this dedication for what it is—a very special means of attaining grace through our patroness, under her most beautiful title, The Immaculate Conception.

In recognition of his fatherly solicitude and interest in Schulte High School, we wish to thank our spiritual and temporal benefactor, Paul C. Schulte, Archbishop of Indianapolis.

WE DEDICATE OUR BOOK . . .

to our Principal, our beloved Father Joseph V. Beechem, M.A., who is the very keystone of Schulte. Through his fatherly concern and guidance, each and every student has felt the genuine affection that Father "B" bestows on all Schulteans. We know that our Father "B" would do anything possible for the school as a whole or for any student individually.

Not only Schulteans but Terre Hauteans in general recognize the sincere friendliness and wholehearted service which are among Father's many fine qualities. When he was sent to our city to oversee the establishment of Terre Haute's first Catholic coeducational high school, it was a gain for every member of our community. The Rotarians, the Optimists, the Newman Club, as well as our Schulte Boosters' and Mothers' Clubs, will support us when we say that Father "B" has taken a sincere interest in our school and in our community in all civic, spiritual, and social affairs.

We are proud and happy to be the first graduating class of Schulte to have the privilege of dedicating the Mitre to our Principal, Father Joseph V. Beechem.

The staunchest supporter of our Golden Bears and the best friend of every Schulte student is Father Joseph V. Beechem, M.A., our Principal. Father "B", as we affectionately call him, has taken a sincere interest in all our activities from the most frivolous Sock Hop to our very dignified graduation exercises.

Because of this, Father "B", we wish to extend to you the sincere thanks and good wishes of Schulte's second graduating class, the Class of '55.

God bless you, Wilma!
Fr. J. V. Beechem

OUR TEACHERS...molding our characters...

Sister Marie Virginia, M.A., is our Dean of Girls and Senior Class adviser. In her social science classes she prepares us for our civic duties of tomorrow.

Sister Marie Virginia

Father John E. Fish, Senior religion teacher, makes us aware of the reasonableness of our faith and challenges us to live it well.

Sister Clotilde, M.A., teaches Junior and Senior English classes. As school librarian she assists students to a better use of library facilities. She is a Junior homeroom sponsor.

Sister Clotilde

Father Donald Schiffli, O.F.M. Conv., gives the sophomores a knowledge of the New Testament and applies Christ's teachings to present day living.

*May God bless and keep you always!
T.S. E. Ford*

Father John Elford, S.T.L., highlights the epochs of the Church's history and gives the juniors an appreciation of the Holy Ghost in the life of the Church and in their own lives.

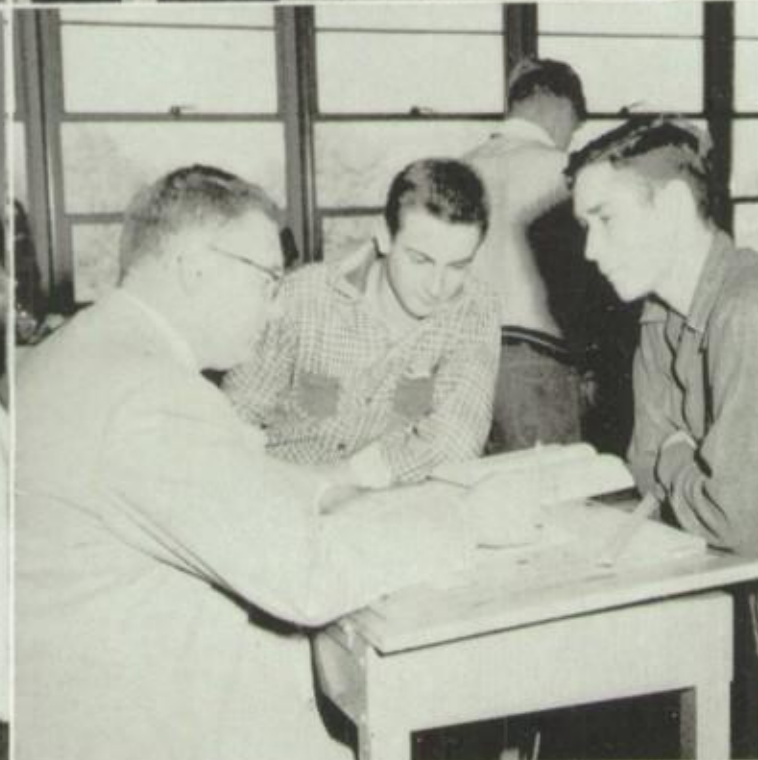

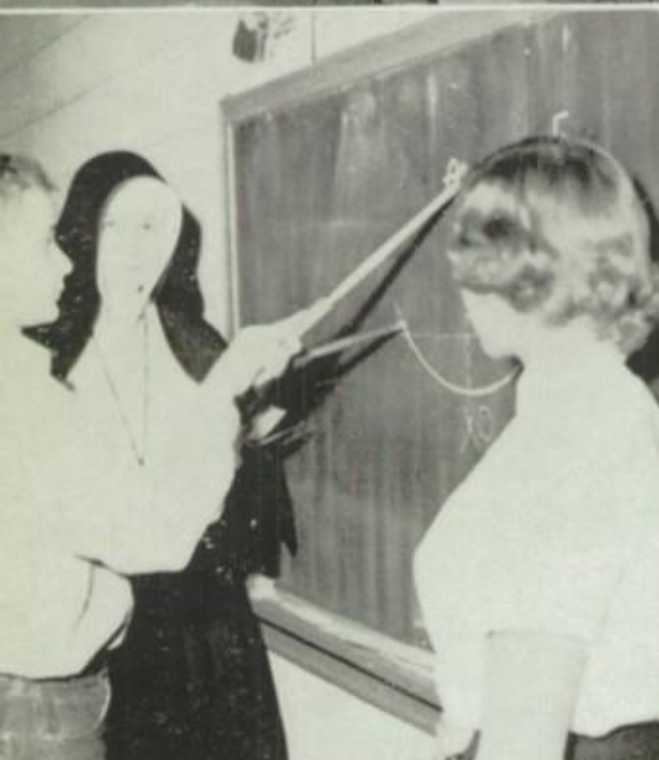

Father John Wells, S.T.L., a new member of the Schulte faculty this year, besides teaching the sophomores religion is an industrial arts instructor.

and guiding our lives . . .

Mr. Emmanuel Fusco, replaced by Mr. Robert Drew at second semester, teaches mechanical drawing, industrial arts, and journalism, and is adviser for all school publications.

Sister Mary Gertrude, M.A., a Junior sponsor and faculty assistant on the Mitre staff, teaches shorthand, typing, and bookkeeping to students interested in commerce.

S. Mary Agnita

Sister Mary Agnita, M.A., besides teaching geometry and all Sophomore English classes is also a Sophomore homeroom sponsor.

Mr. Joseph Frisz, a Junior boys' homeroom sponsor, is our assistant coach and teacher of algebra, mechanical drawing, and industrial arts.

*Luck, Always,
Mr. Frisz*

Sister Petra is one of the Sophomore homeroom teachers. Latin and English classes as well as the C.S.M.C. are under her direction.

Father Kevin Cole, O.F.M. Conv., replaced by Father Xavier Knopp, O.F.M. Conv., at semester time, challenges the juniors to a better knowledge of the attributes of the Church.

toward an Eternal Goal . . .

Sister Winifred

Father James Dooley teaches the fundamentals of Latin to the freshmen and gives his Sophomore religion class a thorough understanding of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass.

Sister Winifred, a Freshman homeroom sponsor, instructs the freshmen in English and algebra. She also conducts classes in higher mathematics and physics for the upperclassmen.

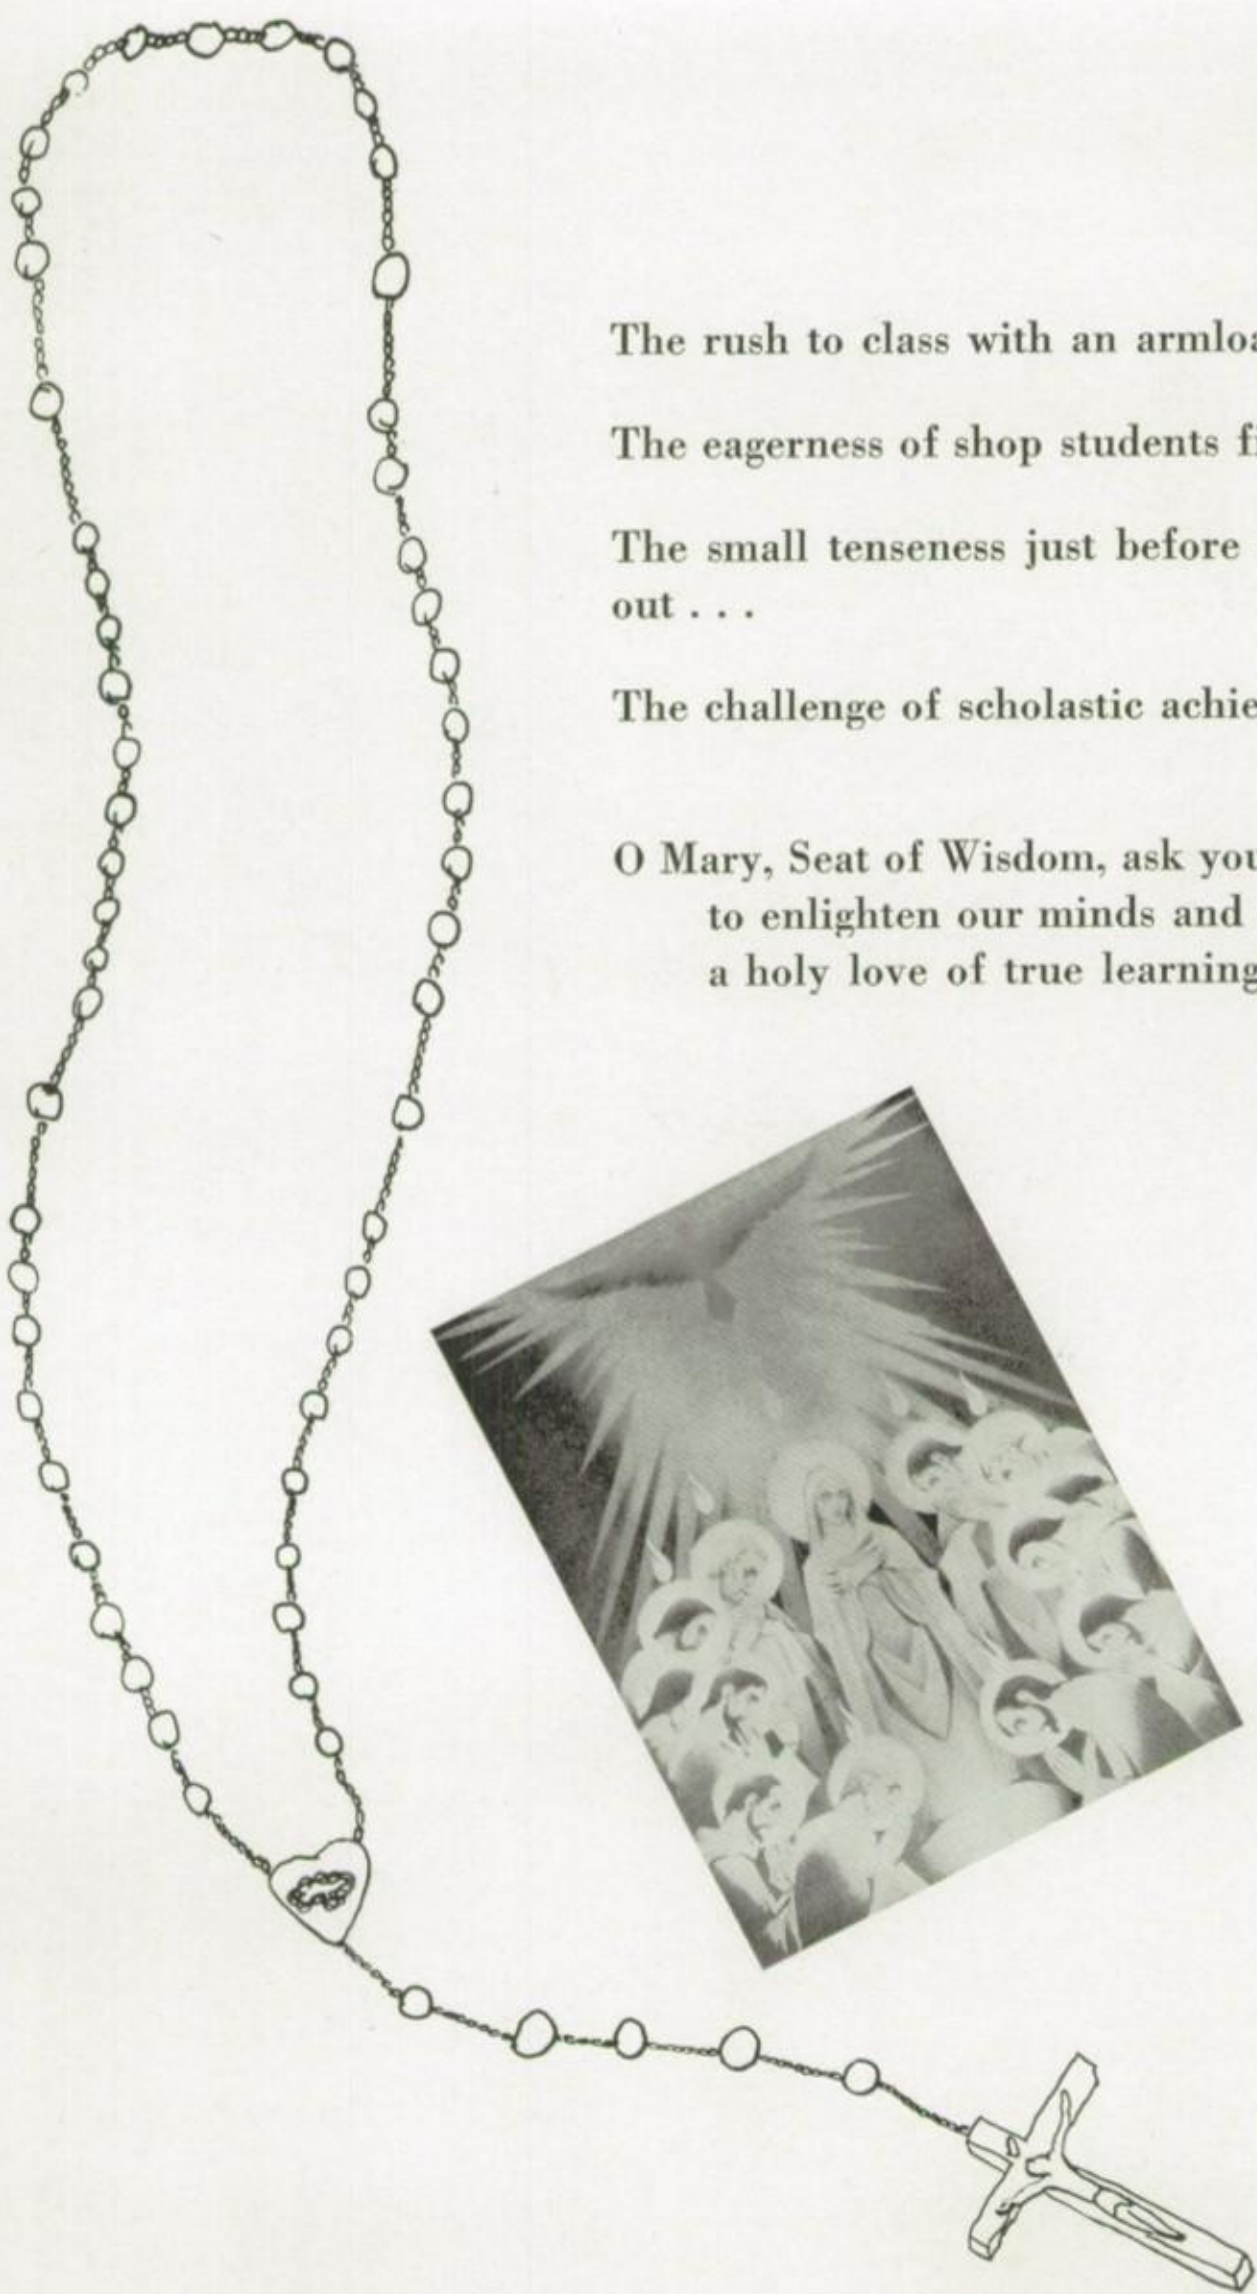

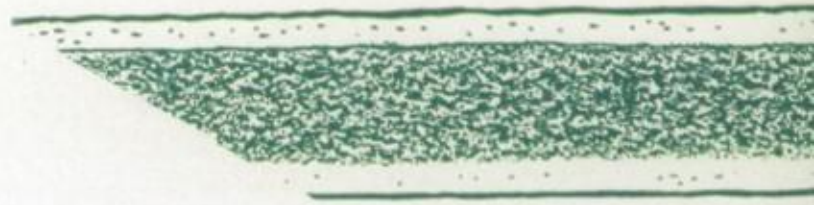

Sister Alma Louise, M.S., has introduced us to Spanish. She also teaches biology and health to the sophomores and is a Freshman homeroom sponsor.

Mr. Peter Varda is Schulte's head coach. Although most of his time is spent in directing athletics, he also teaches typing and health classes.

Sister Paula, our music instructor, directs the Schulte Glee Club. She also teaches Freshman English and sponsors one of their homerooms.

Mrs. Millicent Uran in addition to physical education instruction prepares Schulte girls for successful home making and supervises the cafeteria.

The rush to class with an armload of books . . .

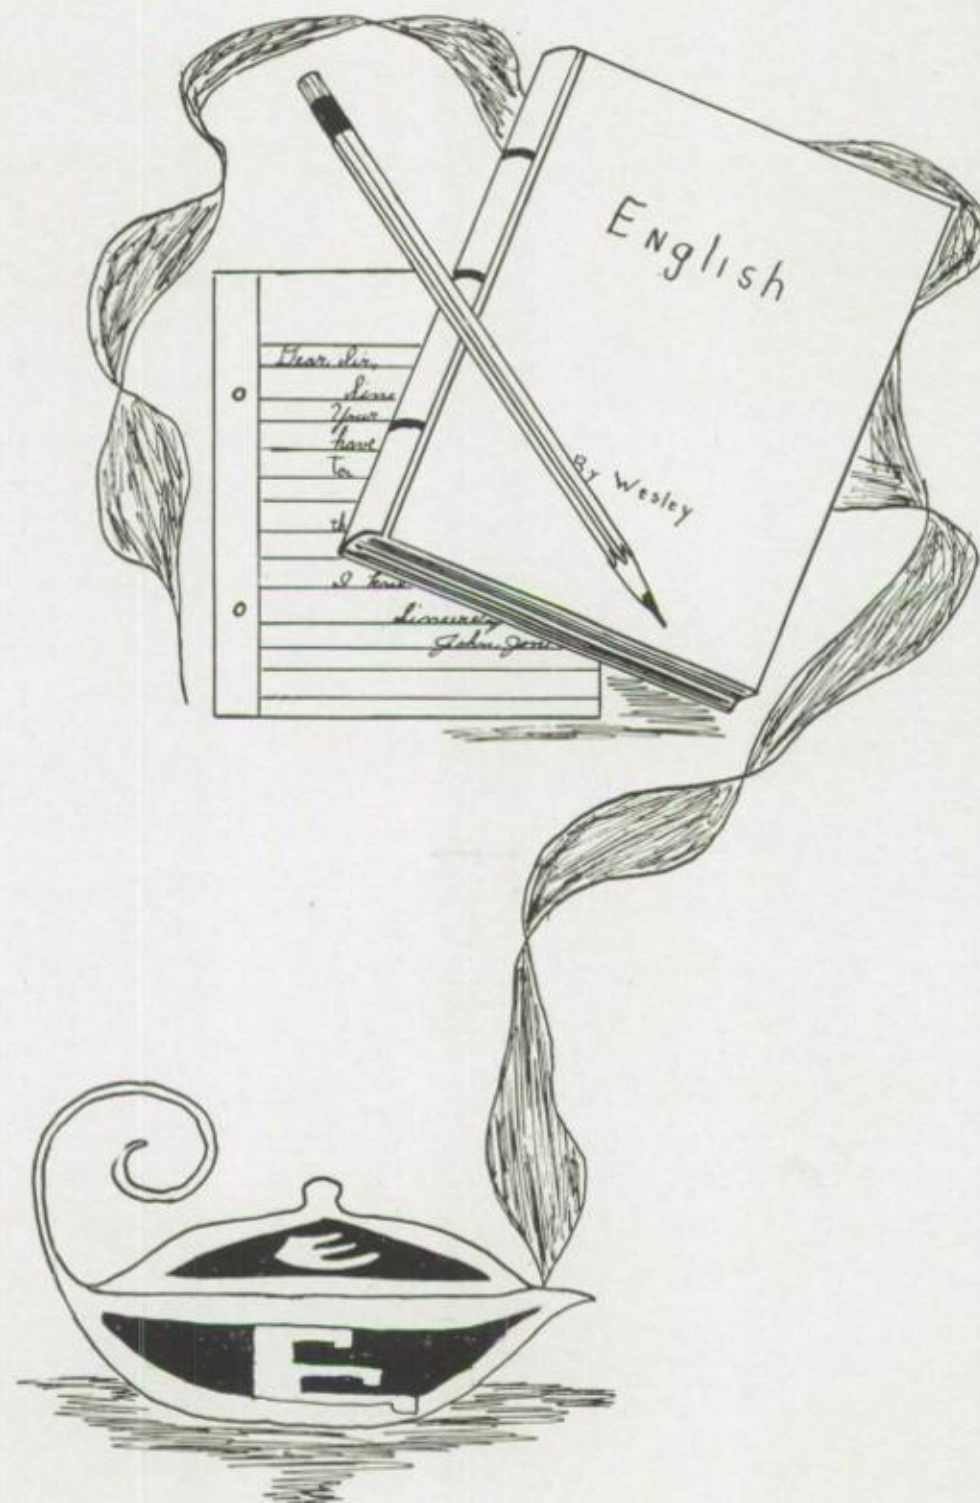

The eagerness of shop students finishing a project . . .

The small tenseness just before exam papers are handed out . . .

The challenge of scholastic achievement . . .

O Mary, Seat of Wisdom, ask your Divine Son to continue to enlighten our minds and to enkindle in our hearts
a holy love of true learning.

Instructive

Millicent Grant
Future homemakers learn the artistry of cooking and sewing in Schulte's modern home-ec lab.

Personal hygiene and first aid are stressed in the health and safety courses.

DAY BY DAY WITHIN THESE WALLS . . .

Mathematically inclined students study the science of physics in a well-equipped physics lab.

History in the making of our country is studied by the juniors and seniors.

The fundamentals of math are taught to the members of the Freshman algebra class.

The seniors unravel civic and current world problems in government and sociology classes.

WE ARE LEARNING THAT WHICH WILL AID US . . .

Latin scholars enrich their vocabulary in a four-year Latin course.

In the modern language courses Spanish as the Spaniard speaks it is the daily routine.

Speed and accuracy are the two main goals of those taking courses in typing.

The Short Story never fails to make its appeal to English classes.

NOW AND FOR LIFE ETERNAL...

Future architects draft and design for modern construction in the mechanical drawing classes.

Projects in metal and wood are completed by members of the industrial arts classes.

OUR FUTURE SENIORS -- The Class of '56

Our Junior class is one of which we may well be proud. They have a dauntless enthusiasm which has contributed much to the fine reputation of Schulte. They indeed set an example for underclassmen. With the many fine-spirited students in their midst, we feel certain of a Senior leadership that will maintain the high standards of Schulte. Junior officers are: President, Jack Felix; Secretary, Bernadette Hayworth; Vice-President, Mary Alice McCrisaken; and Treasurer, George Schmidt.

The Harvest Hop and Junior Jive of '55 sock hop were among the outstanding informal affairs of the school year. A unity of purpose combined with hard work and wholehearted cooperation has made Junior affairs successful affairs.

Juniors At Work . . .

Having captured the true spirit of Schulte, the juniors have shown an eagerness to carry through its traditions. Highlights of their activities were the selection of class rings and the election of a queen and court to preside at the annual Junior Prom.

OUR SOPHOMORES -- The Class of '57

This has been a very satisfying year for our Sophomores. They rose from lowly freshmen to become an integral part of life at Schulte. Studies were harder, but the extra respect they commanded was worth the effort.

Their record of active participation in school activities is an enviable one. Theirs is the distinction of being the first graduating class to have spent all four years at Schulte. Officers of the Class of '57 are: r. to l. President, Dick O'Leary; Vice-president, Joy Foulkes; Treasurer, Bill Fenoglio; and Secretary, Tom Stergar.

OUR "FRESHIES" -- The Class of '58

Although freshmen are usually regarded as rather "necessary evils" by the upperclassmen, we at Schulte respect and admire the youngest members of our Schulte family.

The "Freshies" have been among our staunchest backers in all school activities. Their exuberant spirit has been manifest in all school sports. Because of their fine attitude, Schulte looks forward to their loyal support during the coming years. The sophomores of Schulte are a very enthusiastic group. They instill into all their activities that Sophomore zest and sparkle that distinguishes them as one hundred percent in school spirit.

SOPHOMORES AND FRESHMEN IN ACTION...

Groups of freshmen can always be found actively engaged in school projects. As our largest and youngest class they have already found the many activities of high school life an inducement to put their varied talents into use.

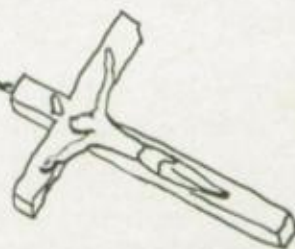

The excitement of a "first" corsage or tux . . .

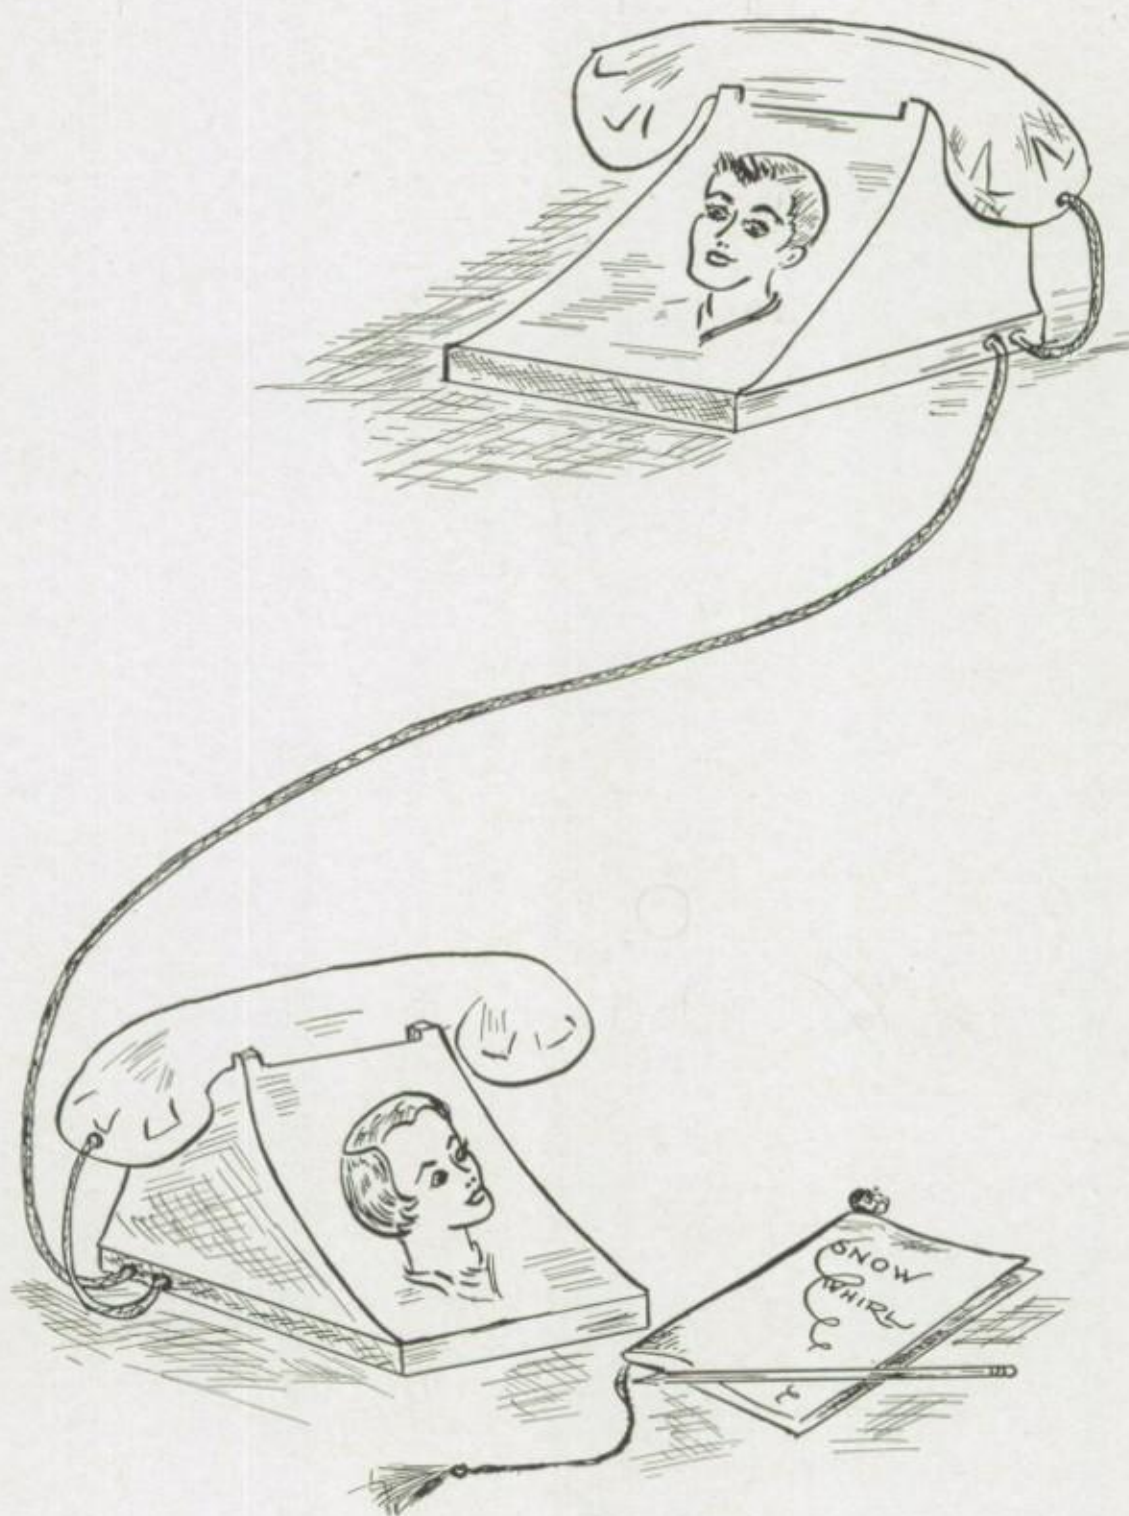

Soft music drifting through a maze of whirling dancers . . .

The audible hush as the curtain rises for a program . . .

The heart-warming gladness of cherished memories . . .

Hail Mary, full of grace, pray for us that in our social activities we may always live true to our Christian ideals and be a credit to our Catholic faith.

Constructive

DESIGN FOR . . .

The Aquinas Club of the Future Teachers of America, which through its many and varied activities stimulates interest in one of the noblest professions, is one of the worthwhile organizations at Schulte. Sister Marie Virginia is its faculty sponsor.

F.T.A. officers are: Jeanne Sullivan, Historian; Rita Peperak, Vice-president; Barbara Reilly, Parliamentarian; Rose Marie Findley, President; Alice Hayworth, Secretary; and Mary Helen Ophoff, Librarian.

The Library Club under the leadership of our school librarian, Sister Clotilde, performs a much-appreciated service for our school. The members of this organization in addition to cataloging devote many hours to shelving and repairing books. Officers are: Jeanne Sullivan, Secretary; Mary Jane Tiffin, President; Linda Turner, Vice-president; and Mary Kay Dammann, Treasurer.

THE FUTURE

Under the guidance of Sister Alma Louise the Schulte High School Chapter of the Future Nurses of America has become another of our "firsts" at Schulte. Pictured are F.N.A. officers: Barbara Reilly, Secretary; Sandra Van Tol, President; Mary Joan Steed, Vice-president; and Margaret Thralls, Treasurer.

Only juniors and seniors are eligible for membership in the F.N.A. During the year members have enjoyed assisting in the pediatrics department of St. Anthony Hospital.

"Veritas vincit omnia" is the motto for this newly-formed Quest for Truth Club. Organized by the Senior Civics and Sociology class, its prime interest is discussion and debate on world problems. Officers are: Parliamentarian, Dick Hawkins; Secretary, Mary Helen Ophoff; Vice-president, John Bratt; and President, Mary Jane Tiffin.

Boys and girls who like to sing meet each Wednesday and enjoy an hour of classical, folk, and popular music under the able direction of Sister Paula. The combined Glee Clubs have performed during the Christmas play and the All-Valley Christmas and Easter Shows. Pictured above is the Senior - Junior group with the Freshman and Sophomore groups at the right.

The Girls' Athletic Association carries our education into the physical phase. Mrs. Uran, our physical education teacher, sponsors this organization. One of the largest clubs in the school, it coordinates the various organized girls' sports: basketball, swimming, and bowling. Pictured above are the Sophomore and Freshman members with the Junior and Senior group at the lower right.

"MENS SANUS IN CORPORE SANO" . . .

G.A.A. officers: r. to l.
 Florence Wrin, President;
 Lynn Fruehauf, Vice-president;
 Paula Welch, Secretary; and Alice Hayworth, Treasurer.

The Schulte chapter of the American Junior Red Cross co-operates with city and county high schools in various national Red Cross projects. Under the guidance of Sister Clotilde this group has done outstanding work during the year. Carol Decker is Treasurer; Jolene Richetta is Vice-president; and Carolyn Gullifor is President.

DESIGN FOR LEADERSHIP . . .

The Student Council under the capable guidance of Father Beechem initiates and integrates the major activities of the year. The officers are: Paula Welch, Vice-President; Jim Crean, President; Alice Hayworth, Secretary, and Dick O'Leary, Treasurer.

At the right: President Jim Crean with homeroom representatives of the Student Council formulates plans for the co-sponsorship of the Schulte-Wiley football trophy.

For those whose interest lies in the commercial field a Secretary-of-the-Month Club was organized this year. Students enrolled in the commercial department are eligible for membership. The club is sponsored by Sister Mary Gertrude. The officers are: Mary Alice McCrisaken, Vice-President; Carolyn Gullifor, Secretary-Treasurer; and Dorothy McLeish, President.

DESIGN FOR CATHOLIC ACTION . . .

An all-school organization is the Catholic Students Mission Crusade. Under the efficient direction of Sister Petra the CSMC sends its gifts of prayers and sacrifices to the missions at home and abroad. Maintenance of the school chapel and the erection of the outdoor crib at Christmas were among the principal projects of the club this year. Pictured below are the CSMC homeroom representatives.

CSMC officers: Sandra Van Tol, Secretary; Mike Kearns, Vice-president; Joy Foulkes, Treasurer. Not pictured: John Hanley, President.

Being a member of the National Honor Society is the coveted award that only a small percentage of the juniors and seniors can attain. Eligibility is based upon scholarship and election upon faculty ratings in character, leadership, and service. The officers of the organization who have had the privilege and honor of being members in both their Junior and Senior years are: Rose Marie Findley, Treasurer; Carolyn Gullifor, President; Dorothy McLeish, Vice-president; and Alice Hayworth, Secretary.

DESIGN FOR ACHIEVEMENT . . .

During an impressive ceremony in November three seniors were formally inducted into the Society. They are: John Bratt, Mary Helen Ophoff, and Mary Ann Sholten.

MUSICALLY YOURS . . .

The Harmony Club under the sponsorship of Sister Paula has as its members those students especially interested in the field of music. The club provides more diversified opportunities for cultural advancement. Its officers are: Anna Becking, Rosalie Cullen, and Carol Mischler.

PHOTOGRAPHICALLY SPEAKING . . .

"WHEN THE FROST IS ON THE PUMPKIN . . ."

The Harvest Hop sponsored by our peppy juniors was one of many delightful dances of the year. Autumnal decorations, a professional orchestra, square dancing and novelty games made the evening a memorable one. The juniors chalked up another success.

Members of the refreshment committee candied apples before the hop.

Up go those decorations . . .

GRIDIRON QUEEN . . .

Jeanne Sullivan, popular senior, was elected by the student body to be Schulte's first football queen. Bob Verdeyen escorted Senior attendant, Dorothy McLeish. Junior attendant, Carolyn Robinson, entered with John Burget; Bob Gourdouze accompanied Carol Decker, sophomore; and Len Garvin attended Freshman, Margie Cahill. Jack Felix, captain of the football team, crowned the queen.

Mary Ann Darbutt sings for the Queen and her court.

IT'S CHRISTMAS TIME . . .

East Ohio Boulevard this year was a point of interest for all Terre Hauteans desirous of seeing another beautiful outdoor Christmas scene. Built by John Hellman and assembled by members of the John Bosco Club, the illuminated crib drew many visitors all during the holiday season.

AT SCHULTE

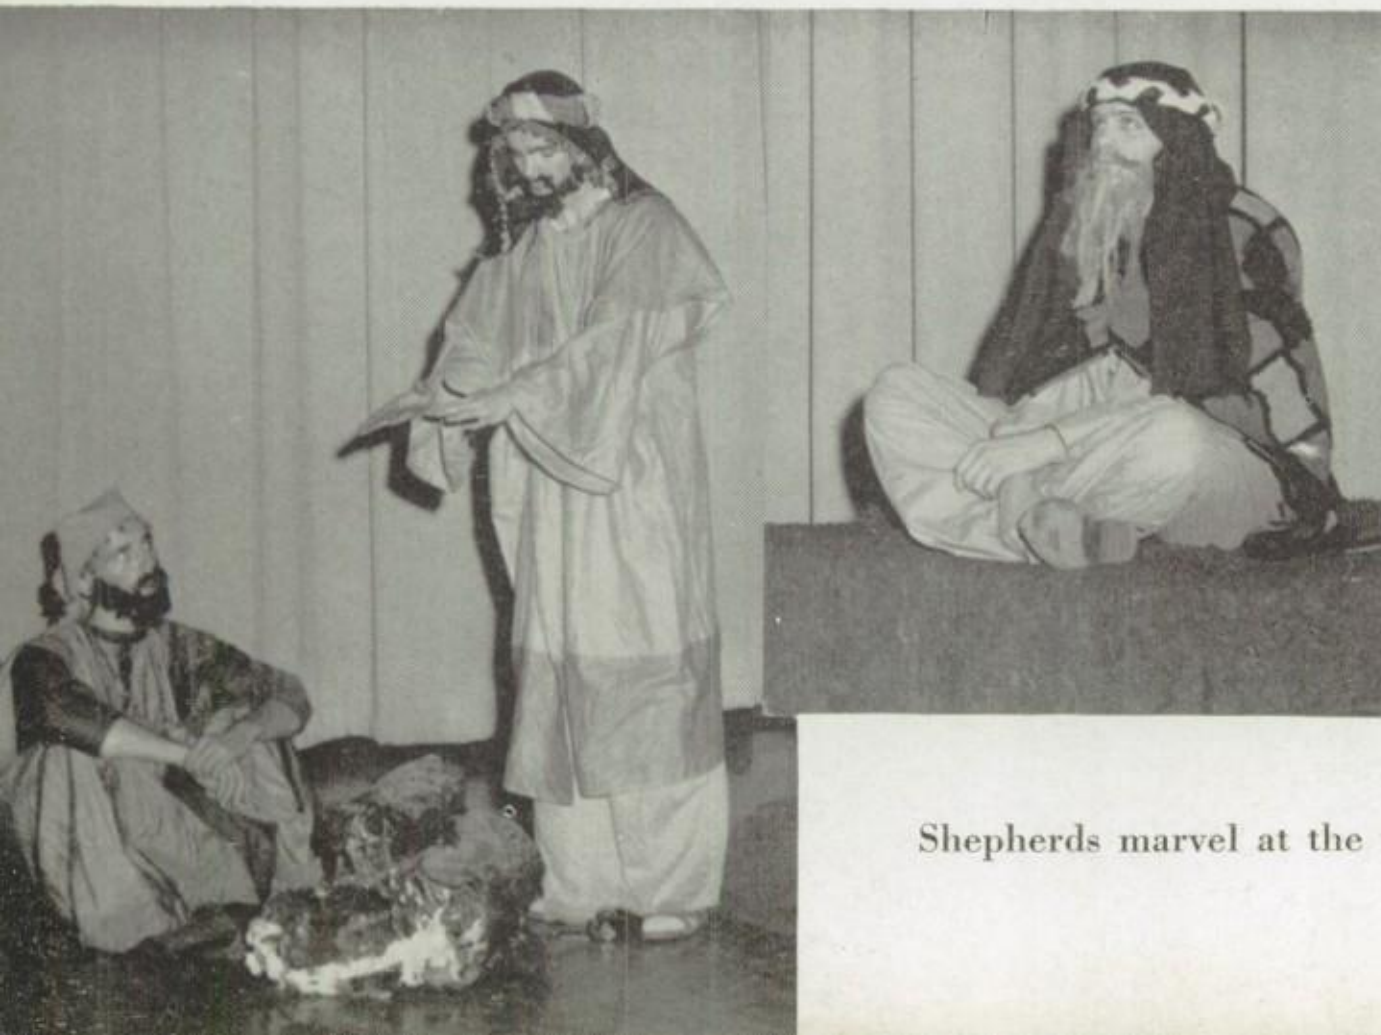

Shown at the right are the four class presidents of Schulte adding that final artistic touch to our school Christmas tree. Sophomore president is Dick O'Leary; Senior president, John Hanley; Junior president, Jack Felix; and Freshman president, Tom Forbes.

Only through the magnificent spirit displayed by the staff and advisers of the Mitre was it possible for the second edition to be published. Unfortunately we had to lose the very backbone of the staff when Mr. Fusco left for Uncle Sam's service in early February. However, through sheer determination the editors, bolstered by the efficiency of the co-adviser, Sister Mary Gertrude, carried on the work and take pleasure in presenting the 1955 Mitre.

QUIET! REPORTERS AT WORK . . .

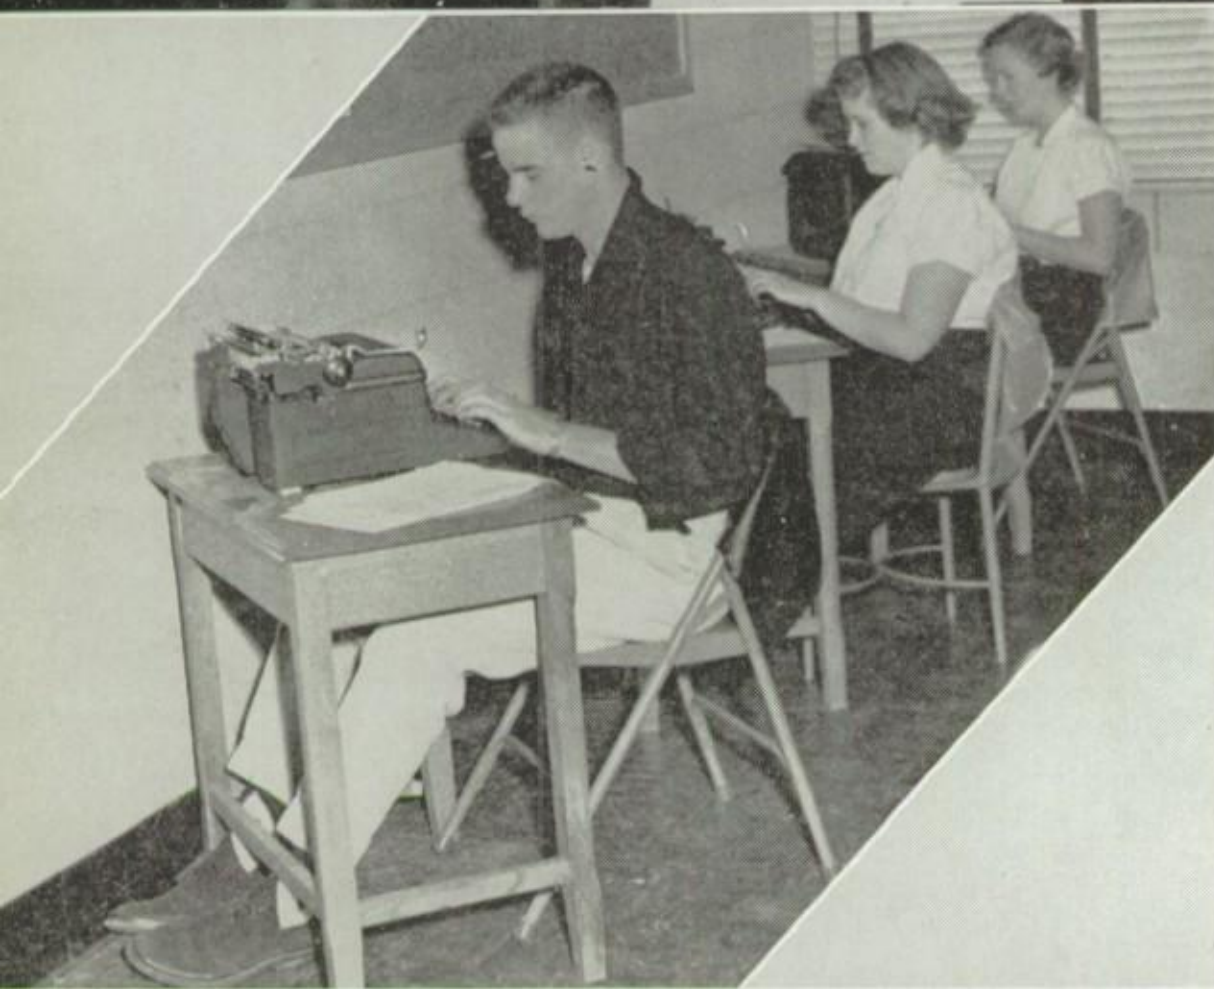

The Journalism class has as one of its projects the publication of the school newspaper, The Growl. Under the enthusiastic supervision of Mr. Fusco during the first semester and the capable direction of Sister Winifred in the second semester, monthly issues brought us a review of school activities and kept us informed of future events. Pictured below are Growl reporters on assignment.

OPERATION FOOTBALL FIELD . . .

Terre Haute real estate sales reached an all-time high this fall in the unique campaign, Operation Football Field, initiated by the Schulte Booster Club. This gridiron bargain offers to any person—anywhere in the world—the “chance-in-a-lifetime” opportunity to own one square foot of 57,600 square feet of the proposed athletic stadium on the Schulte campus. With adequate lighting and stands this stadium will provide recreational opportunities for the entire community. The enterprise took on civic proportions with the official inauguration of Football Week, October 24-30 by Mayor Ralph Tucker.

Each purchaser receives an honorary deed and may locate his “foot of turf” on a miniature field (shown at right) in the Schulte gym which gives complete identification of land and owners of this real gridiron bonanza.

THE RAMPAGING BEARS . . .

*Best Wishes
Peter R. Varda*

Just as the golden sun rises in the eastern sky, the Golden Bears of Schulte appeared on Indiana's Athletic horizon. The mid-day sun found the Schulte Bears holding their own against their more seasoned opponents and giving promise of future gridiron prowess. As the sun set on the first year of all-varsity competition, Coach Varda's boys posted a very commendable record of four wins, four losses, and two ties. •

In their initial varsity skirmish the Schulte Golden Bears, having previously toppled Gibault 26-0 in a practice game, slipped by a stubborn Dugger eleven with a 14-13 win. A 3-0 record was rolled up at the expense of Brazil in an 18-8 triumph, but an experienced and heavier Schlarman of Danville forced them to settle for a 13-13 tie. Downed by a 31-0 score in their city debut with Gerstmeyer Tech, the Bears doggedly battled for their second tie at Greencastle and romped over the Happy Hunters of Huntingburg in a 20-0 upset. Bested by the experienced Wiley eleven with a 27-0 score in the second of the city series, Schulte in its final game ably battled Garfield to a standstill until the second half when the undefeated Purple Eagles scored two late touchdowns for a 13-0 victory.

At the second annual grid dinner sponsored by the Schulte Booster Club Dick O'Leary, Sophomore team member who showed great ability on offensive and defensive duties at end, is presented the Lester Kniptash Award for the most valuable player by President of the Booster Club, Louis Lenne. This award is given annually in memory of the late Lester Kniptash. Individual awards were given to each member by the respective coaches. The event was highlighted by a talk by Coach Mark Dean of Indiana State.

Trailing at a close margin throughout three quarters, the Bears bounded into a winning spurt to defeat Mecca 63-49.

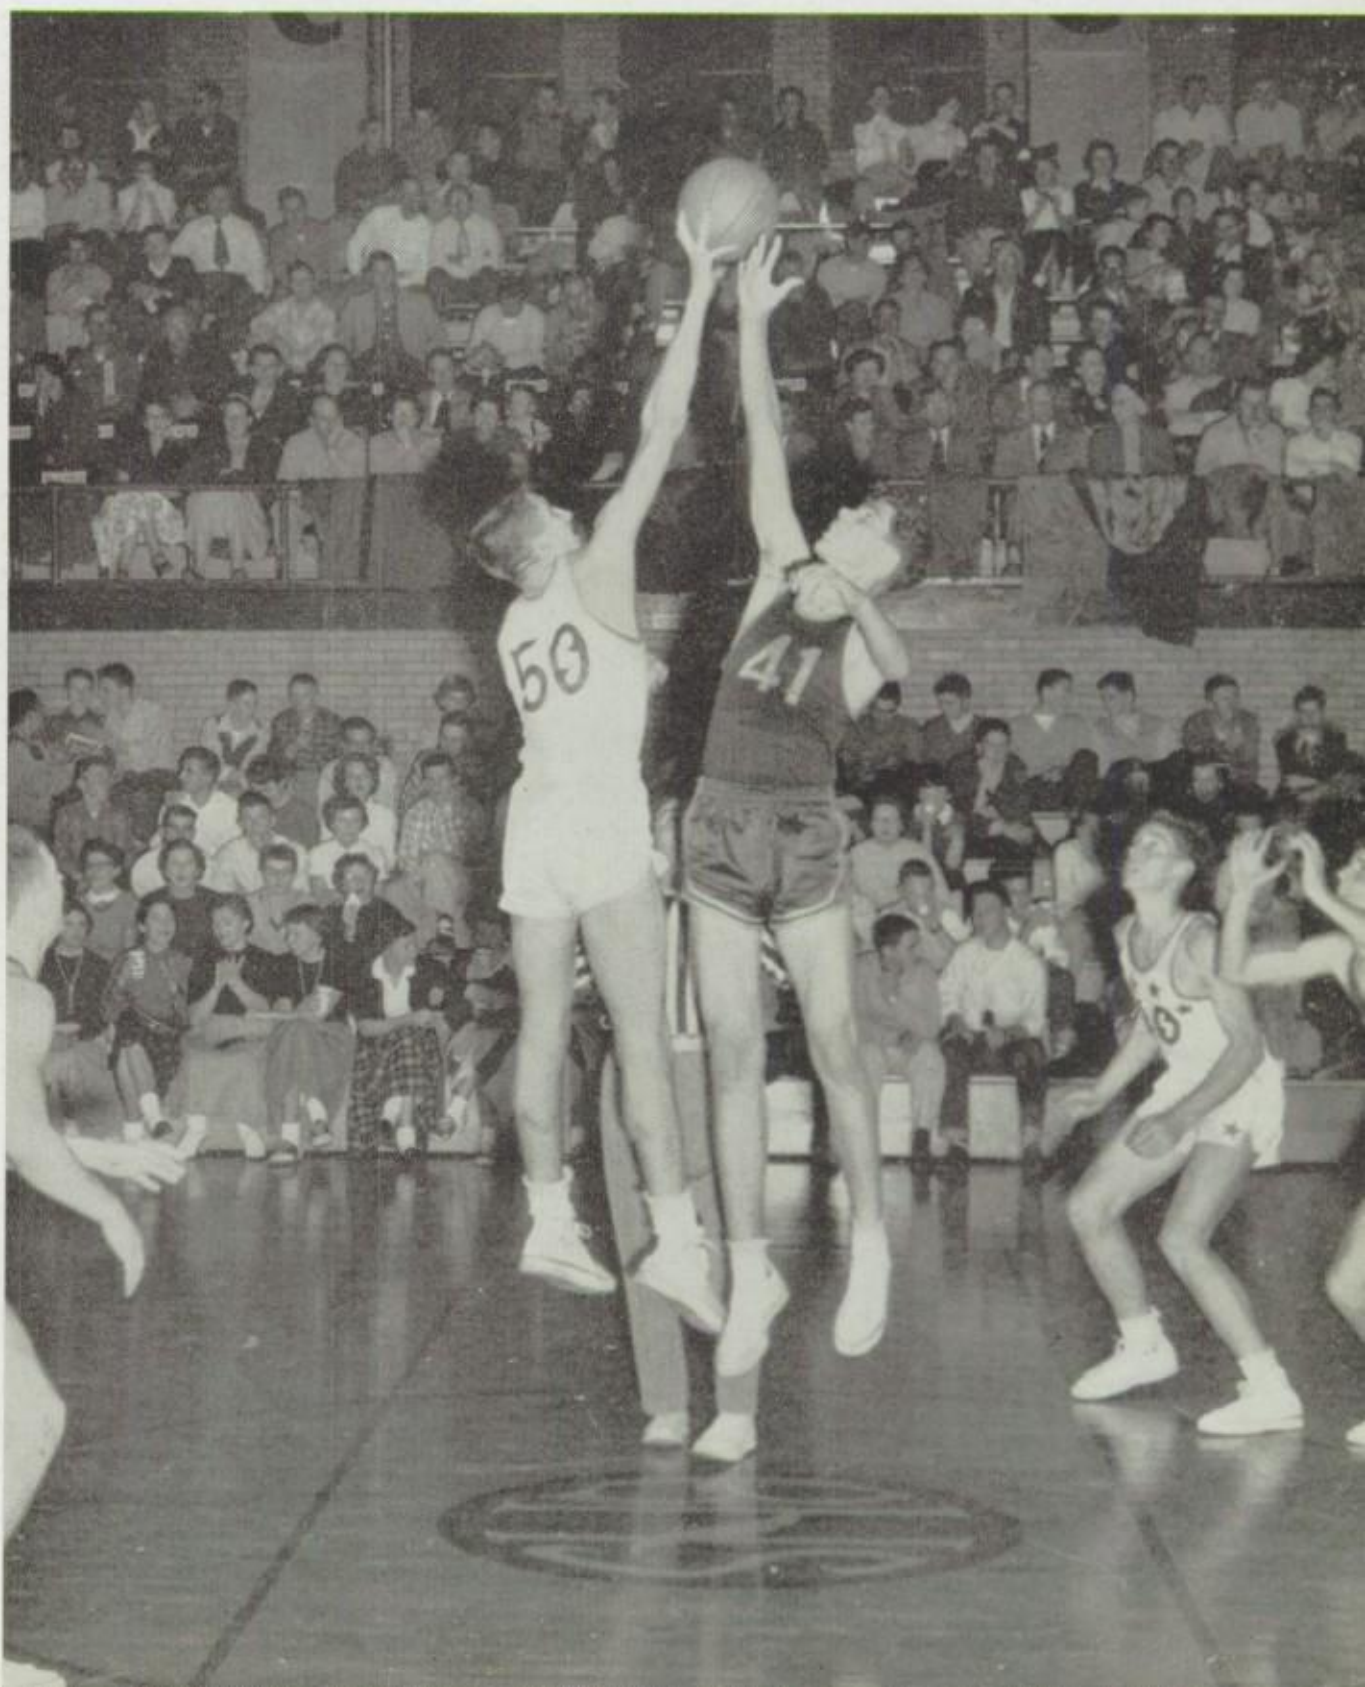

Tom Kulinski fires one from the corner.

FORMIDABLE OPPONENTS

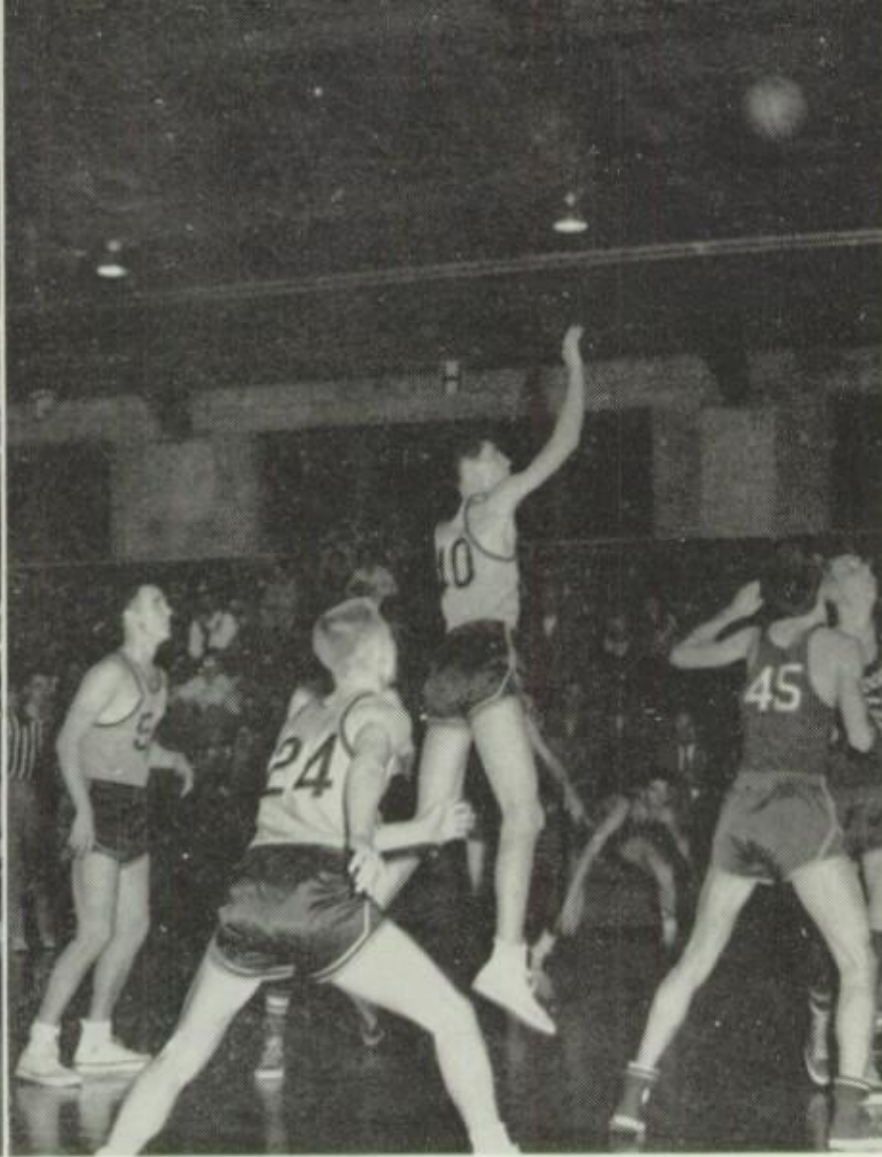

In spite of only six wins in twenty starts the Bears had a happy season of basketball. They dropped the opener to Brazil 36-42 but came home to win from New Market in the second game, 52-43. Four days later the Black Cats of Tech exploded all over the Bears in the first of our city series, 62-43. But again the Bears came back on their own floor to beat Mecca 53-49, and Otter Creek 36-32. The Golden Bears were soundly spanked by the Vigo County champs, Honey Creek, 36-59. A trip to Vincennes proved disastrous because the Wabash Valley runner-up, Central Catholic, sent the Bears scurrying home with a 71-54 stinger. Switz City, the Wabash Valley and Regional champions, was a little more kind to the Bears, a 62-51 victory for the Tigers. Then there were the three heart-breakers lost to Wiley—by three points in the Valley, nine points at home, and four points in the sectional. But winning the final scheduled game from St. John's, Loogootee, 62-44, gave a happy ending to the season.

Paul Troth, towering Schulte center, tips the ball starting the 1954-55 opener with Brazil's Red Devils. A brilliant first quarter raised our hopes high. Schulte led 12-6, but the Red Devils arose to return an 18-15 lead at the half. The undaunted Bears fought a steady battle in the second half, but it was not quite enough to catch the Red Devils. Larry O'Brien's five fielders gave indication of his eventual "Most Valuable Player" title. Although the initial game scored a close loss for the Golden Bears, it set the pace for the scrappy quintet's season.

Paul Troth makes a basket from the free-throw line.

Jim Sullivan scores on jump shot in Riley game.

the seniors are often found at prayer in our beautiful student chapel. Each day's problems as well as the big decisions associated with senior year find them seeking help from a source greater than themselves. The privilege of a daily student Mass is valued by them and prayerfully attended by many.

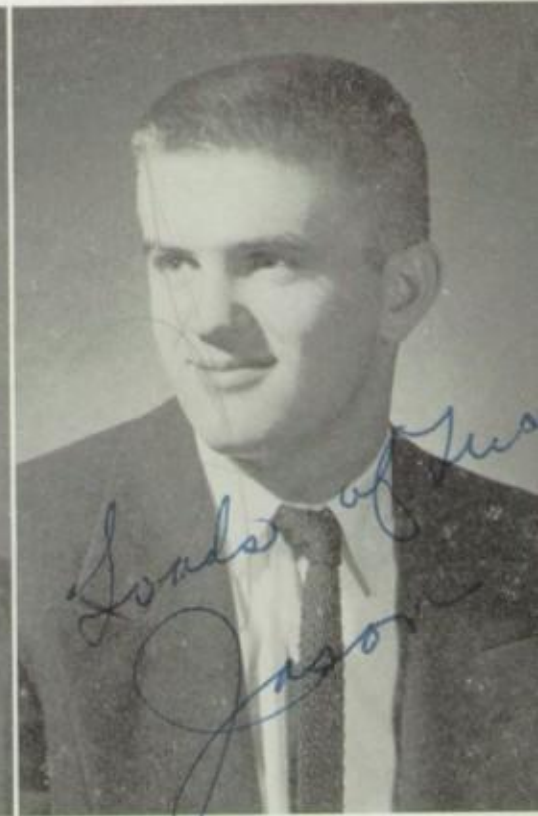

LEADING THE WAY FOR THE SENIORS . . .

are the four class officers. Under their very capable leadership the class of '55 has sponsored many worthwhile and memorable activities. These dynamic students have not only been representative of their class but have been an asset to the entire student body. Alert to their responsibility of leadership, they have tried to further that foundation of traditions upon which the future spirit of Schulte depends. The records of their activities attest to the fibre that goes into the making of fine class officers. The Senior officers are: Treasurer, Dick Hawkins; Vice-president, Sue Mahoney; Secretary, Carolyn Gullifor; and President, John Hanley.
